

Howard Little Excavating Ltd.

Bark Mulch

This product is a by product from the lumber mills in the province. The bark is removed from the logs and ground up to make great mulch to hold moisture around trees and plants. The older the product the darker it is. Dark bark around the base of trees and plants makes for a great looking contrast with green lawns. If the bark is placed onto landscaping fabric it will help prevent the growth of weeds close to the trunk of trees and bushes.

