

Howard Little Excavating Ltd.

Pit Run Fill

Pit run fill is an unscreened material, ranging in size, extracted directly from a bank. Its primary use is to build up areas where grades are lower than the finished grade, for fill, or to backfill around foundations.

