

Howard Little Excavating Ltd.

Rip Rap

This is a cubical rock with at least 3 flat surfaces. This makes a good product for stacking for short retaining walls and driveway culvert ends. It can also be used in areas where a lot of run-off of water happens in heavy rain and snow melts. It will keep areas from eroding. It basically locks in place whether it is hand laid or machine placed.

